WHITWELL'S JAUNDICE TEMPERANCE BITTERS OR THE PEOPLE'S BEST REMEDY

FOR the cure of Jaundice Fever and Ague, Debility Worms, etc etc

TO COUNTRY MERCHANTS.

Do you wish to promote the health of your customers? Do you wish to confirm their good habits, and afford them the highest satisfaction? Do you wish to make fifty per cent on your investment without the smallest risk? Then purchase at least one box of Whitwell's Temperance Bitters.

Evidence of the good qualities of the compound. Dr Hooper in his Medical Dictionary, in allusion to a prominent ingredient in these Bitters, says—It has been found very effectual in restoring digestion, expelling flatulence and removing costiveness so common in sedentary life.

Dr [illegible] the most eminent physician in Eng[land] says on the same plant [illegible] it affords more vigor [illegible] than any other article yet known.

Dr Bigelow, in the sequel to the U S Pharmacopoeia, page 341 in allusion to the same article: It is one of the most valuable of the bitter Tonics. It has an invigorating effect on the stomach and [is] peculiarly serviceable in dyspepsia.

These Pills contain as large a proportion of the Extracts of SARSAPARILLA AND TOMATOES as any bitters in the United States and rank immeasurably above all others in existence for creating an appetite, reviving the spirits and strengthening the whole system.

Why will you pay a high price for an article when you can have every medicine suitable for such diseases to be found in the four quarters of the globe in one quarter of the price. Orders have [come] from [all] regions of the [United] States, from British America and the West Indies—This is not surprising, for to prefer any inflammatory Alcoholic compound to this mild and pleasant decoction, would prove the consumer far behind the age in good taste, good habits and even civilization.

Dealers will find it for their interest to purchase directly from the proprietors.

Sold at the low price of 25 cents per pint bottle, or $2 per dozen.

HOMŒPATHY HOMŒPATHY!! HOMŒPATHIC PILLS,

[illegible] THE MOST BENEFICIAL RESULTS.

These Pills are about the size of the head of a common pin and one pill is a full dose. They owe their power and efficacy entirely to the chemical combination of the most simple, well known and long tried articles.

COSTIVENESS IS THE PARENT OF MANY DISEASES

And requires some gentle cathartic medicine like the Homœopathic Pills.

They are used for the same complaints as the Temperance Bitters, and should always be used together, the Pills being a gentle cathartic, and the Bitters the best tonic, or strengthener in existence.

The Pills are 25 cents per box, [illegible] per dozen.

For sale by the proprietors, J P WHITWELL & SON, Druggists

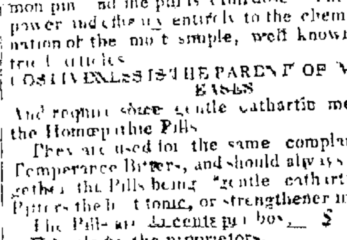

Reader, should you want a bottle of Opodeldoc for a sprain, cramp or rheumatism be sure and buy WHITWELL'S. It is the original article and is the cheapest in the end, and the best.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS.

THE expressions rich Blood and pure blood have a scientific basis. The ridicule which many have attempted to cast on these common sense opinions must recoil upon themselves as sure as that truth will prevail.

Brandreth's Pills.

The effect of these celebrated medicines is to purify the blood, to convert the poor corrupt blood into healthy rich blood. And it is because they do this, that they have been so steadily sought after by all classes of our citizens who have required medicine. And it is because of the power Brandreth Pills are now known to possess as health restorers, that renders them so popular.

They cure all affections, simply because they make the blood pure—abstract out of it those qualities which produce disease, and give to it those qualities which produce health.

Now every solid part of the human frame is made from the blood, and the food we eat is converted into blood to supply the waste our bodies require. [illegible] we manufacture our entire bodies in due year from the food taken into the stomach. Suppose the blood made in this stomach of ours is unsound, impure, occasioned by some cause or other, it may refer to the preceding generation, no matter, we make impure blood and it so cannot be healthy. Or suppose the stomach has been for a time [illegible] loaded with matters detrimental to health, or food for a long period has been of an unwholesome kind, or that the mind has been much troubled [illegible] great attention to any particular [illegible] occasion bad effects on the blood. Any of these causes existing, good blood cannot be supplied to the body.

But let Brandreth's Pills be used daily under these circumstances, in doses of from two to [illegible] [illegible] will determine. What is the effect? It is to carry off the impure matters from the blood, leaving the [illegible] to renew every part of the body. [illegible] into so healthy a condition that even bad air [illegible] food [illegible] are unable to injure the health. Even when the climate or food [illegible] healthy, the occasional use of the Brandreth Pills will separate the impure parts and [illegible] what is good to supply life and strength to the body.

When the bones are "diseased," when every part of the frame is out of order, the Brandreth Pills will in nineteen cases out of twenty cure. Remember that the body can be entirely remade from the bones and all, and aided by this most beneficent medicine, in a quarter of the time it takes in the ordinary course of nature. In from two to four years an entirely new healthy body can be exchanged for the unsound the diseased, the miserable one. The slowness or quickness of the change altogether depending upon the effect the Brandreth Pills are made to produce which effect can be graduated just as the patient pleases. No possible injury can result from this. Nothing but good can follow. Enquire the effect of Brandreth Pills among your unprejudiced friends [illegible] sufficient to satisfy you that there is no risk in making the trial, and that you will not be doing yourself justice without it.

When your blood is once pure nothing in the shape of food will hardly come amiss, nothing will sit upon your stomach, you may eat pie or any thing; the great variety of food the Brandreth Pills [illegible] All who have weak stomachs should not fail to [illegible] by afflicted in body, should not fail to [illegible] Brandreth's Pills which will aid [illegible] principle and by perseverance with them [illegible] renew the whole body, the materials now in use [illegible] to those [illegible] Good blood cannot make bad bone or bad flesh [illegible] the Brandreth's Pills sure [illegible]

The public should be cautious of the various [illegible] advertisements [illegible]

A sure test of genuine Brandreth's Pills. Examine the box of pills, then look at the certificate of agency, whose date must be within the year, which every authorized agent must possess; if the three labels on the box agree with the three labels on the certificate the pills are true—if not they are false.

Purchasers are cautioned [illegible] this DEATH BLOW TO COUNTERFEITERS. Sold at 25 cents per box by SMITH & FENNO [illegible]

IT HAS BEEN ESTIMATED THAT UPWARDS OF 200,000 Persons Visited that splendid Edifice OAK HALL, SINCE ITS ERECTION, AND THAT 150,000 HAVE BEEN CLOTHED AT THIS POPULAR Tailoring Establishment.

THE reasons why Clothing can be sold at this Establishment so much LOWER than at any other places are these:

First—Our retail sales are about ten times the amount of any other establishment in Boston.

Second—We do a sole Cash Business, consequently the purchaser does not have to pay for the defaulting debtors clothes, and all the genteel class of trade that have been in the habit of ordering their clothes up town, and their bill sent once or twice a year have found that they can make a SAVING OF ABOUT ONE HALF, by cash down at OAK HALL, and can get a garment made in as good style, or a little better.

If I were to judge by some samples worn which sit upon 'the human form divine' as "though Nature's journeymen had made them, AND NOT MADE THEM WELL," so that with all this immense trade of Custom Work, and a large quantity sold daily ready-made, I am enabled to sell at Extra low Price.

All our custom work is made by Journeymen Tailors, and we employ none other than the MOST SCIENTIFIC CUTTERS

To give the public an idea of the extent of my business, I will merely state that I have at this time in my employ
8 Fashionable Cutters,
5 Trimmers,
1 Cashier and Book keeper;
1 Paymaster,
10 Salesmen,
1 Express and Driver;
3 Runners,
50 Journeymen expressly for our nice custom work, and the astonishing number of 2000 Operatives on thin work, adapted for Spring and Summer

Wholesale dealers will find at this establishment every description of Ready-Made Clothing, IN ANY QUANTITY.

Gentlemen will recollect we ask no more at retail, and that we have an endless variety of RICH PIECE GOODS, ALWAYS ON HAND, which will be made to measure in that style of elegance for which this establishment has become so celebrated.

It is not to a town, or city, or a state,
Or a nation, that we our addresses confine,
All our plans are mature, and our efforts are great
O'er all climes of the earth without rival to shine!

To all nations we speak! for all nations we toil!
And we look for support in this glorious strife,
We resolve that no obstacle ever shall foil
The grand aim of our heart, while we linger in life!

We discard all the snares and the frauds of the trade
We lift up the standard of spotless reform,
And we trust that so long as that standard's displayed,
The smile of the world will defend from the storm.

We repose in the public a confidence strong,
And believe that they will not neglect our endeavor,
The success we have met has encouraged us long,
And we thank and assure them 'we'll merit it ever!'

MISCELLANEOUS.

The City Watchman's Song.

Hark! 'tis ten o'clock!—attend
To the counsel of a friend —
First, kneel in prayer, and then to rest,
With concience clear and tranquil breast,
Sleep sound! above yon starlit blue
There is an eye will wake for you!

'Tis eleven!—now attend
To the counsel of a friend —
To him who is to e work delaying,
To him who still at cards is playing,
I say, leave off!—to bed repair,
And sleep beneath your Father's care!

Twelve o'clock has struck!—attend
To the counsel of a friend —
O! if there be a wretch still waking,
With heart and brow through sorrow aching,
May Heaven one hour of sleep bestow,
To lull the heart and cool the brow!

One o'clock has struck! attend
To the counsel of a friend —
O! if, deceived by Satan's guile,
There's one abroad on purpose vile—
I do not think that such can be—
Go home!—thy Judge in heaven must see!

It is three o'clock! attend
To the counsel of a friend —
Lo! heaven is streak'd with lines of gray—
Let him who hopes a peaceful day,
Breathe forth his prayer of gratitude,—
For mind refreshed and strength renewed

Anecdote.

When Mr Clay was speaker of the House of Representatives, asperity would in the zeal of conflict, sometimes find its way into debate, and now and then, but very rarely, take the character of personality, by which we do not mean coarseness of language, such as is now too often heard in debate, but such reflections upon motives as one gentleman owes it to another to refrain from. Something of the kind had passed, in the heat of debate, between Mr Calhoun and Mr Grosvenor, but, as affairs of this sort were then conducted with great privacy, it was not known, or known to very few, that a duel was to result from it. The next day, or the day following, the hour of meeting of the House had arrived, and the members had assembled as usual, but the Speaker failed of his usual punctuality. The inquiry passed from mouth to mouth, 'Where's the Speaker?' 'What in the world has become of the Speaker?' An hour elapsed and yet no Speaker. At length, it came to be understood that Mr Calhoun and Mr Grosvenor were that morning to meet, at ten or eleven o'clock, a few miles distance from the Capitol, to settle their quarrel by mortal arbitrament and that Mr Clay, having accidentally got wind of it, had mounted his horse, leaving the House in the lurch with the determination, if possible, by any effort of his, to prevent the shedding of blood upon a mere point of honor between two gentlemen, whose lives were of so much value to their friends and to their country. Another and another hour passed amidst the deepest anxiety, when out of breath, from haste in riding, but full of joy and gladness, arrived the Speaker, and called the House to order. His mediation, united with that of a distinguished member of the Senate, had been successful —Their earnest entreaties had been irresistible. They had brought back unharmed, if not reconciled, those who had gone out as enemies, to stake their lives against one another. They were received by their colleagues and associates with open arms, and, the reader may be sure, there was not much business done in the House that day. By his effective interposition, the prompting of a humane and generous heart, Mr Clay on that occasion won golden opinions of all men. Nat Int

How is it

We are told that the editor of the Age, who says he was in such bad health last August that he did not write the articles in his paper, in which the idea of annexing Texas was ridiculed and opposed, was actually at the Readfield convention the same month of August, and made a speech against the resolution there adopted, and in favor of annexation. Is this so? Then why did not the Age editor tell us of it? And why did he permit the Age, both before and after the convention to speak so contemptuously of annexation as to represent the Journal editor to be insane because he believed annexation was not abandoned? Was the Age editor not able to prevent annexation from being repudiated and ridiculed in his own paper, and yet able to attend the Readfield convention, and make a speech in favor of annexation? There seems to be a tangled skein here to be unravelled. [Kennebec Journal

A Call to the Farmers.

An Address has been issued by the farmers of the American Institute established in New York directed to the friends of Agriculture generally, to attend the annual Fair in October, the eleventh day thereof. The object of this call is to take into consideration the propriety of soliciting Congress to grant efficient aid to Agriculture, and as a means to establish a Home Department. This is not the first time this proposition has been entertained. The "Father of his country," feeling deeply the importance of the farming interests recommended to Congress to aid with its purse and its power in support of this first branch of American Industry. We have our Navy Department, our Diplomacy, our Patents to encourage the useful and liberal Arts why should we not have a Home Department whose duty it shall be to watch over, protect and encourage those whose business is with the soil of our country, the greatest and only unfailing source of wealth and prosperity? We trust this call will be responded to, far and wide.

What they Mean.

The loco leaders in this State during the recent canvass have strongly insisted in many places and by the most solemn declarations that they were in favor of more Protection than the Whigs.

Since the election the Eastern Augus thus shouts:—

"THE STAR IN THE EAST SHINES BRIGHTLY UPON THE LONE STAR OF TEXAS."

"THE WHIG MOTTOES OF PROTECTION AND NO ANNEXATION LIE PROSTRATE IN THE DUST."

At the recent Loco Convention in Lynn a banner with the following inscription was loudly cheered:—

"Polk, and Dallas, FREE TRADE AND TEXAS."

The Belfast Journal, the last paper before the election urged upon its readers to vote the loco ticket and thus prevent Maine from following the manufacturing policy of Massachusetts!

These hints clearly enough disclose the fact that the success of the loco ticket anywhere or by whatever means effected, is to be taken and deemed and made to have a practical effect against the Protective policy, in favor of Free Trade and of the immediate Annexation of Texas. If any man has been deceived as to these effects growing out of his vote, there is an opportunity now for him to get his eyes open—There is yet left to him one chance more to declare his wishes at the polls and to vote against breaking down the Protective policy, that secures to our countrymen their own markets at fair producing prices against the prostrating effects of foreign competition. One chance more for him to vote against the immediate Annexation of Texas and the assumption of her debts; and the embrace of her slave interest. Let this opportunity be embraced and the verdict of Maine be given for the true interests of the country.

The leaders of the loco party, having succeeded by the strictest organization and party discipline—by colonizing voters, by misrepresentation, and demagoguism, mean to keep up that organization. They are determined not to quit the field. They have imported a large number of cheap, scurrilous papers from abroad which they are ashamed to have circulated in this city but say they are just the things for the "people in the country." The lowest passions are appealed to and every base inducement has been and will continue to be urged upon men to vote the loco ticket. These things should arouse the honest and intelligent portion of the community to manly resistance against these plans. The common cause of Liberty, of the security of property, of the progress of education, of the appropriate administration of law depend upon the opinions expressed at the ballot box. Rouse up, then, citizens of our State—friends of Liberty, education, law and success of our Republican Institutions, rouse up and work for your country and for humanity.

☞ The Belfast Journal, loco, is going it full tilt against the Tariff. Every little scrap it can pick up—every joke—all sorts of matters, from all quarters against the Tariff appear in its columns. The Belfast Advocate, also loco is trying to prove that Mr Polk is a first rate Tariff man. The Journal don't want Maine to become a manufacturing State like Massachusetts while the Advocate holds up Massachusetts as a pattern for Maine in manufacturing. We think the Journal altogether the most consistent in its action in the support of its party.

☞ Our readers who visit New York for the purpose of making purchases, and many of them are in the habit of spending no little cash there, will do well to consult our advertising columns. The notice to day of the Millinery establishment of Messrs Fisher & Faxon will claim their attention.

☞ The old farmers in Massachusetts are quite astonished at the abundance, beauty and excellence of fruit the present season. We visited, not long since a young and thrifty orchard on Washington Street, in Boxford, in that State, owned by the venerable Doctor George W. Sawyer, and such a display of fruit it was never our fortune to witness before. The trees were all young and each limb and twig had as much as it could do to support the weight upon it. The fruit was all of the choicest kinds and the variety quite extensive. This orchard appeared to be a pet of the Doctor's old age. It is situated near his dwelling upon a gravel knoll and the soil is kept loose about the roots of the trees. It struck us as something remarkable that all the fruit not only appeared large but exceedingly fair and plump and beautiful. The Doctor supposes this to result from keeping the soil loose.

We also examined the large barn on the Doctor's farm, and which is said to be, (and we have no doubt of the fact) the best barn in the county of Essex. It is built in the side of a hill excavated for the purpose, with a stone basement of excellent workmanship. The entrance to the basement is on one side from the barn yard, which is enclosed with a beautiful stone wall—There is an entrance to the main floor at one end; and an entrance with cattle and carts in the second story from the other end by means of a part of the remaining hill. The barn is 50 by 80 feet and neither timber, board or plank throughout is spliced. Every piece was cut for the purpose even to the plank, eighty feet long. The barn in all its parts and appointments is in the highest style of neatness, convenience and elegance.

The Doctor is equally famous for his excellent humor and generous hospitality as for his professional skill and his agricultural success. Long may he live and enjoy the good things about him.

☞ The locofoco orators have been trying to prove, by broad assertions, however, that the present tariff is ruining the commercial interests by diminishing importations. In New York they are now trying to make it out that the imports of iron, salt, wines, &c. have increased and that the tariff is a failure! The fact is that if all the people of the country understood the full operation of the tariff and the effect it has upon the business, labor and prosperity of the people they would cling to it with as firm a grasp that all the demagogueism of all the locos in the land could not move it.

☞ A multitude of cases have come to our notice since the election in this State going to prove that the tariff and the protective policy have not been understood by the people. The misrepresentations of the leading locos and paid runners of the party, for there have been many such, have been numerous and of the most daring and outrageous character, and so low as not to be reached by the public addresses made upon the subject. The policy pursued in Maine will be attempted in other States. Let the explanations and diffinitions of our whig friends elsewhere be so plain that none can mistake.—Personal conversations and efforts must not be neglected.

☞ The loco leaders feel so well about Maine that they begin to brag about their probable success in the Union. Now no one has supposed that the vote of Maine was necessary to the election of Mr Clay. But as it is the first State out of six or eight that have voted, the locos have been able to keep, they feel as though they had used up the whole Union and closed the accounts. It will be the Whigs turn to feel well in November and to continue so all winter and rejoice with new zeal in the spring!

☞ The New York Journal of Commerce in order to find some reasons in favor of free trade, goes back some twenty years to get the opinions of men in Boston upon the subject. Those old opinions have been proved erroneous and have long since been abounded by those who entertained them, and the protective policy has been embraced by these men and the practical advantages of it clearly proved to the whole country—The Journal wont make much head way by such a course.

☞ Mr B. F Parsons has arrived in this city and will on Tuesday evening next, commence a course of lectures on Phreno-Mnemotechny or the art of improving the memory. This system has received the highest commendation and is unquestionably worthy the attention of all, particularly the young.

☞ The New Orleans packet ship Warsaw, Capt. Hathaway, has on her signal flag the following—"An Ash Tree," a bale of hemp and a hogshead of tobacco, and underneath them "The Same Old Coon."

Success to her, and may her flag never be struck.

☞ Twenty-four Members of the Liberty party, some of their recent candidates of that party for office, have published in the Michigan State Sentinel an address to their fellow citizens, in which they avow their determination to support Mr Clay, as the surest means of preventing the annexation of Texas.

☞ A reformed gambler by the name of Greene is lecturing upon this vice in New York upon the plan of the Washingtonians. His disclosures of the secrets of the gambling house struck his auditors with great force.

The higher a man's soul rises above the world, the more freely and abundantly do his tears flow for others, as those clouds which are highest above the earth pour forth the most plenteous showers.

Punch says he once saw a father knock his boy down, and he thought it the most striking picture of sun-down he ever beheld.

☞ Two vessels, fitting out at Boston were seized on Wednesday last on suspicion of fitting for the slave trade. It is admitted their destination was the coast of Africa, but it is said they were engaged in lawful business. The Boston Mail states that their cargoes had not been examined.

☞ CASSIUS M. CLAY spoke on the evening of the 5th to the Whigs of Detroit, whose Club House was crowded to its utmost capacity.—During the day proceeding, he spoke to a Mass Meeting of 4,000 to 5,000 at Birmingham, Oakland County. He was received with enthusiasm and listened to with profound enthusiasm. The Tariff and Texas were his themes, and he handled them like a master.

☞ Several counterfeiters have been arrested in Pennsylvania recently and their implements secured.

☞ The Nashville Union contains another letter from Gen Jackson in favor of the annexation of Texas. It occupies two columns and a half in said paper.

☞ Hon John Quincy Adams has again been nominated to Congress by the Whigs o his District.

☞ The yellow fever has made its appearance at Mobile.

Later from the Coast of Africa.

The brig Gulnare, Capt. Lulkin, 33 days from River Gambia, Coasts of Africa, brings the following intelligence The brig Margaret, of London, while trading at Aguire, in the latter part of June, sent her boat containing four men and the second mate, ashore for the purpose of trading with the natives, when they were attacked by them and carried off. The second mate had his left arm shot through, but none of the others were injured. The brig Africanus, lying there at the time, got the men back by exchanging goods for them; they also regained the crew of the bark Mary, who had been taken some time previous.

The brig Frances Lord arrived at Gambia with Missionaries on the 2d July, and after lying there two weeks proceeded to Sierre Leone.—all on board were well.

It is somewhat sickly at Gambia, but not so severe as it usually is at this season of the year.

There is no news whatever from Montagin.

The Coon vs The Rooster.

A Capital joke—The Locofocos of Cleaveland, Ohio, recently erected a pole and tied a live rooster in a basket fastened at its end, that their Chapman might crow over the Whigs. The Whigs, not to be outdone, got a live Coon and fastened him on a board at the end of another pole which was elevated, in like manner as the Cock. After remaining up for some time, the Cooney's appetite began to make him feel very uncomfortable and so he set to work and freed himself by gnawing the cord which confined him, and came down from his elevation in search of something to eat. But it appears he was watched by the Locofocos, for no sooner had he set his foot upon terra firm, than he was pursued by the Locos, who were bent on his destruction. So poor Cooney made tracks for his life and directed his course to the Locofoco pole, up which he ran like a squirrel, until he arrived at the top where he made short work, and an excellent meal out of the 'chicken fixens' prepared by the enemies. While he was regaling himself, the Locos were so exasperated that they started off for a gun whereby to revenge themselves, but the Coon 'smelt a rat' and by the time they returned with the implements of death he was oph.—Clay Bugle

Texas.

The Globe says—"If the Democratic party triumph, Texas becomes a part of the Union without a blow being struck."

YOU SHALL BELIEVE.—Belief is not an act of the will. Sufficient evidence compels our assent; so listen, dear reader, and I will convince you that Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry is far the best remedy for diseases of our climate to be found in this country. It is formed by chemical extracts from vegetable (the Wild Cherry Pine, &c.) that nature seems to have placed here as powerful antidotes to all affections of the Lungs and Liver that our ever changing climate induces. After the skill of our greatest physicians was exhausted, it has cured Asthma in various cases. It cured a lady of an incipient Consumption, whose family had all died of the same disease. Refer to Isaac Platt, Esq., Editor of "Poughkeepsie Eagle." Thomas Cozens, Peddonfield, N. J., testifies, under oath, that it cured him of an internal Abscess, violent Cough, raising of Blood, etc., after he was deemed beyond hope. We could refer to plenty of such instances of its uncommon power. The doubting are invited to inquire of individuals and cases that we allude to, as we publish no statements that will not bear the most rigid scrutiny.
